Mother of two children raised in the American Quarter Horse world, showing in AQHYA competition as well as convention delegates during the AQHYA World Show. Travis Dobbs and Courtney Dobbs Clagg have won nine AQHYA/AQHA World and Reserve World titles in the youth and amateur divisions. Johnne Dobbs helped with the Illinois Youth Team for 14 years at the Youth World Championship Show. Courtney (an all around exhibitor) and her husband Josh Clagg have both shown in Youth Activity and Amateur. Travis and his wife Johnna, former youth participants, currently show in Amateur roping, reining, working cow horse, halter and barrel racing. They are active in their state associations (Arkansas and North Carolina). Grandmother of three with one "on the way" and I want them to grow up in the world of the American Quarter Horse. It is a great way to raise children and stay together as a family.
