Section 5: Rights, Duties, and Responsibilities of Members

All shall obey and be bound by the by-laws, rules and regulations of the Corporation and the AQHA except where there is an inconsistency. If there is an inconsistency between the ILQHA by-laws, rules or regulations and the AQHA by-laws, rules or regulations, the ILQHA by-laws, rules or regulations shall prevail. The entire 1986 AQHA Handbook is incorporated by this reference as if stated herein. Each subsequent AQHA handbook or amendment shall be incorporated by-laws.

a. Rights of Members

1. While in good standing, all members shall have equal rights, interests and responsibilities with respect to the Corporation and its property.
2. Membership in the Corporation is a privilege and not a right.
3. Membership or application of membership therefore, may be terminated or rejected by the Board of Directors for any cause or no cause, in the sole discretion of the Board of Directors.
4. Any termination, or application of membership, which is rejected under this paragraph, shall be conducted in accordance with the Corporation's disciplinary procedures outlined in Article IV, Sections B and C.
5. Each resident member shall be entitled to one vote on each matter which is submitted for a vote to the members. There shall be no votes by proxy. Non-resident members, children under 18 years of age who are part of a family membership, and partnership, firm, or corporation members shall not have voting rights.
6. Reinstatement. A suspended or terminated member may petition the Board on each fiscal year for reinstatement. The Board of Directors, in its sole discretion shall grant or deny reinstatement of membership.

Section 6. Automatic Termination or Suspension of Membership

The Board of Directors may suspend or terminate membership, without notice to the member, for the following reasons:

- a. Termination or suspension of membership in the AQHA – If the ILQHA suspends or terminates membership pursuant to this provision, the period of suspension or termination shall not exceed the suspension or termination imposed by AQHA.
- b. Default in the payment of dues – Payment of an obligation to the ILQHA with a check or other negotiable instrument which is later dishonored.

Section 7. Termination or Suspension of Membership with Notice

The Board of Directors may suspend or terminate membership pursuant to the Articles of Incorporation and provisions regarding imposition of sanctions contained in Article IV, for any or no reason, including an act in violation of AQHA rules or regulation or any other act or omission which is determined, in the sole discretion of the Board of Directors to be contrary to the purposes and goals of the IQHA. Any sanctions imposed pursuant to this Section may only be imposed with notice and a hearing conducted pursuant to the provisions of Sections 11, 12, and 13 of this Article.

Section 8. Resignation

Resignations may be made by the filing of a written resignation with the Secretary of the Corporation. Such resignation does not relieve the member of any of his or her obligations already accrued to the Corporation. No refunds on a pro-rata basis will be allowed to resigning members.

Section 9. Transfer Membership

Membership in the Corporation is not transferable or assignable.

Section 10. Sanctions for Violations of Rules and Regulations

The Board of Directors may impose sanctions for a violation of a rule or regulation of the Corporation. Such sanctions shall be determined in accordance with the rules of AQHA and may include, but are not limited to, the imposition of monetary fines, suspension of membership or any other action, which the Board may deem appropriate.

Section 11. Rules for Disciplinary Hearings of the Illinois Quarter Horse Association

a. Parties

1. The Illinois Quarter Horse Association (ILQHA) is a party to all disciplinary hearings.
2. All hearings shall be open to members of the ILQHA. Other interested parties, upon request, may attend.
3. These rules may apply to any disciplinary hearings conducted by the ILQHA where the ILQHA chooses not to use the AQHA rules for hearings as guidelines.

b. Counsel

The parties shall have the right to be represented by counsel, or a representative of their choice, to be present, to cross-examine witnesses, and to participate in any hearing held pursuant to those rules.

c. Hearing Officer

1. All disciplinary hearings shall be conducted consistent with these rules by an attorney admitted to the Illinois Bar who is appointed by the ILQHA

Board of Directors and who shall serve as the administrative hearing officer ("hearing officer").

2. The hearing officer may consolidate several complaints for purposes of hearing when it is found that the proceedings are related.

d. Powers and duties of hearing officer

1. The hearing officer shall have authority consistent with these rules and the by-laws to govern the hearing and to admit or exclude testimony or other evidence.
2. The hearing officer shall rule on all proper motions and objections by any party from the time the hearing officer is assigned to the matter until the decision or final order on the hearing is filed with the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

e. Continuances

1. The hearing officer may grant continuances for good cause shown. Cause shall include, but is not limited to, the unavailability of a witness, attorney or a representative, necessary to the hearing. Failure to employ counsel in a timely manner shall not constitute cause.
2. Requests for continuances shall be made, in writing, to the hearing officer sufficiently in advance of the scheduled hearing to permit reasonable notice to all parties. Reasonable notice shall not be less than two (2) days written notice, unless an emergency arises.
3. All hearings, once commenced, shall continue on successive days until completed.

f. Form of pleadings and other papers

1. All documents shall be typewritten. Photocopies are acceptable provided they are reproduced by a clear printing or duplicating process.
2. Each document shall have on the first page the title and number of the matter in which the document is filed. Each document shall contain on the final page the name, address, and phone number of the attorney representative or of the party if appearing pro se.
3. The original and one copy of each document shall be filed with the hearing officer.
4. A copy of each document filed and a proof of service shall be served on all parties.

Section 12. Complaint, Answer and Disclosure

a. Notice as Complaint

1. The notice of a hearing to a respondent shall serve as a complaint. The notice shall specify the conduct which is the subject of the hearing and the by-laws or rules on which the IQHA bases its claim.
- b. Service of Notice
1. The notice of the hearing shall be served on the respondent by certified mail, return receipt requested.
 2. The notice shall be mailed no less than fifteen (15) days prior to the date set for the hearing.
 3. Notice of service of any other documents required by these rules is deemed to have been made upon proper mailing.
- c. Answer
1. The respondent may answer the notice, but is not required to do so. Where no answer is filed, the facts in the notice will be taken as denied.
 2. Any answer shall contain:
 - a. A specific admission or denial to each allegation, or an assertion that the respondent is without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief with respect to each allegation; and
 - b. A statement of any matter constituting a defense to any allegation.
- d. New Matter in Answer
1. Any allegation to new matters, which are contained in the answer, shall be deemed denied without the necessity of a reply thereto.
- e. Amendments to Pleadings
1. The hearing officer shall have complete discretion to allow amendments to pleadings.
- f. Required Disclosure
1. The ILQHA shall notify respondents, in writing, no less than ten (10) days prior to the hearing of all witnesses to be called on direct examination.
 2. The ILQHA shall serve as respondent, no less than ten (10) days prior to the hearing, copies of all documents which they intend to introduce as evidence at the hearing.
 3. No continuances shall be granted on the grounds that a party has not served disclosure in a timely fashion.
 4. The hearing officer, at his discretion, may refuse to admit any documents or testimony not disclosed in accordance with this section.
- g. Production, Inspection, Copying, and Photocopying of Documents and Other Tangible Things.

1. The respondent(s) may request inspection and reproduction of documents and other things. A respondent requesting reproduction shall, at their own expense, arrange for reproduction of the documents requested. The documents shall be made available to the respondent party within three (3) days after receipt of the request for production of documents. If a request is made by telephone, the respondent shall file an affidavit attesting to the substance of the conversation.
- h. Discovery Control
1. The hearing officer may, at any time, on its own motion or on the motion of any party or witness, make such protective orders as equity and fairness may require, denying, limiting, conditioning or regulating discovery to prevent unreasonable annoyance, expense, embarrassment or disadvantage.
 2. All matters that are privileged against disclosure in civil cases in the courts of the State of Illinois shall be privileged against disclosure in a disciplinary hearing.

Section 13. Hearing Procedure

- a. Adverse Witnesses.
1. At the hearing a witness may be called and examined as under cross-examination in the same manner and circumstances as provided under the rules of evidence under the State of Illinois.
- b. Testimony and Evidence
1. All testimony and other evidence shall be under oath of affirmation.
 2. All testimony and other evidence shall be admitted on basis of whether a prudent person would find the evidence presented credible and relevant in the ordinary conduct of its affairs.
 3. The ILQHA shall present its case in chief prior to the respondent presenting any defense.
 4. The ILQHA must prove, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the respondent committed the acts, which constitute conduct subject to disciplinary action.
 5. The ILQHA shall arrange for a court reporter to record all oral testimony.
- c. Stipulations
1. Written stipulations signed by the parties to be bound may be introduced as evidence. Oral stipulations may be made on the record at the hearing.
- d. Supplementary Pleadings

1. The hearing officer may, in his sole discretion, permit the parties to argue orally and/or submit such briefs as deemed appropriate.
- e. Settlement
1. If at any time after issuance of notice the parties agree to terms of settlement, such terms shall be reduced to writing, signed by the parties and submitted to the Board of Directors of the IQHA for approval.
- f. Issuance of Final Order
1. As provided in the by-laws of the ILQHA, the Board of Directors' decision shall be final.

ARTICLE V MEETING OF MEMBERS

Section 1: General Membership Meeting

Annual meeting of the resident members of this Corporation shall be held during the first of each calendar year.

- a. Location and Date
The location and date of this meeting shall be determined by the Board of Directors.
- b. Notice of General Membership Meeting
The Board of Directors shall cause minutes of the General Membership Meeting to be given to resident members by regular mail at the address of the member currently on file with the Corporation. Said notice may be given by publishing in the official newsletter of the Corporation.
- c. Purpose of the Annual Meeting
The purpose of the General Membership meeting shall be to transact business of the Corporation which requires membership approval.

Section 2: Quorum

The number of voting members required to constitute a quorum to conduct business in any meeting shall be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors.

Section 3: Notice of Meetings

Notice of any meeting must be given not less than five (5) days nor more than forty (40) days prior to the meeting date. Notice of a special meeting shall contain the purpose for which the meeting is convened.

Section 4: Special Meetings

A special meeting of the resident members may be called by the President and five (5) members of the Board of Directors, or 20% of the resident members.

Section 5: Informal Action by Members

Any action that members may take at a general or special meeting of the Corporation may be taken without a meeting if written consent to inform the action is signed by all of the members entitled to vote.

ARTICLE VI BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1: General Powers

- a. The affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by its Board of Directors.
- b. A member may be charged with a violation of the rules and regulations solely in the discretion of the Board of Directors.
- c. The Board of Directors shall have the power to designate geographical boundaries of the districts to be served by an elected district director. Additionally, the Board shall divide the state into three (3) regions consisting of the Northern, Central, and Southern region.

Section 2: Number, Tenure, and Qualifications of Directors

- a. The Board of Directors shall consist of all of the officers of the Corporation, two (2) past Presidents of the Corporation, the AQHA National Director(s) and all elected Directors.
- b. Tenure of Directors – All members of the Board of Directors shall serve for one (1) fiscal year.
- c. Qualifications – The Board of Directors shall be Illinois resident members of ILQHA in good standing at both the time of nomination to and seating on the Board of Directors.
- d. There shall be 12 Directors. Each year, at the General Membership meeting, the newly elected Board of Directors shall evaluate the existing geographical boundaries and reapportion the Districts for the subsequent elections.
- e. The Director shall appoint an alternate Director from their District. The alternate is to have voting power at regular Board of Directors' meetings only when elected directors are absent. Alternates will have the same term and duties as the Director and will serve on a standing committee.

Section 3: District Director Vacancies

The Board of Directors by majority vote shall be responsible for filling any District vacancy. The vacancy created for whatever reason shall be filled by an active ILQHA member residing anywhere within Illinois for a period of one year or until the next Board of Director election.

Section 4: Regular Meetings

- a. Annual – An annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held without further notice, immediately after and at the same place of the annual meeting of the members.
- b. Other Meetings – The Board of Directors may provide by resolution, either within or without the State of Illinois, for holding of additional meetings. Notice of other meetings of the Board of Directors shall not be made other than by resolution.

Section 5: Special Meetings

The President and any five (5) Directors collectively may call a special meeting with the Board of Directors. A special meeting of the Board of Directors may be held at any location.

Section 6: Emergency Meetings

When the President and any seven (7) Board members feel there is cause for an emergency meeting, the notice provision for meetings may be waived for the limited emergency purpose. Any action taken at an emergency meeting must be ratified by the Board at a special meeting within fifteen (15) days of the emergency meeting or such action shall be null and void NUNE PRO TUNC the date of the action.

Section 7: Notice of Regular Meetings

- a. Regular Meetings – Notice of any meetings of the Board of Directors shall be the notice section of these by-laws.
- b. Special Meetings – any notice of a special meeting must state the purpose for this special meeting and no other business except that which is related to the purpose of this special meeting may be transacted.

Section 8: Emergency Meetings

One third of the members of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board except at a special meeting where a quorum of one-half is required.

Section 9: Resolutions

- a. All resolutions shall be written out prior to adoption. In addition to active language of the resolution, in the preamble, the Board shall outline the facts and circumstances which necessitate the Board's actions. Where there is a question of interpretation of a resolution of the Board of Directors, the Board or any other entity reviewing the action shall first review the preamble of the resolution for guidance. If the preamble does not clarify the ambiguity, then the minutes of the meeting should be consulted.
- b. Resolutions, unless separately voted upon, do not become effective until published, in written form, in the official newsletter of the Corporation or through individual written notification to each member. Any objection to the content of the written version must be made within ten (10) days after publication in writing pursuant to the notice provisions contained in these by-laws. If an objection to the content is filed, then the resolution shall be placed on the agenda at the next Board meeting.
- c. The President has the sole discretion to review objections, consider their merits, and reject any objection which does not specifically identify a substantial error in the recording of the resolution. Resolutions may be adopted by a majority of those Board members present.

Section 10: Automatic Removal from Board

- a. Whenever an Officer or Director fails to attend two (2) consecutive Board of Director's meetings in one calendar year, then the Officer or Director shall be deemed to be automatically removed from the Board. Automatic removal disqualifies the officeholder for election at the next annual election.
- b. The applicable provisions of these by-laws shall apply in the event of a vacancy.

Section 11: Salaries

Directors and Officers shall not receive any stated salaries or reimbursement for expenses, unless voted upon and ratified by the general membership.

Section 12: Telephone Action

Any meeting described in this section may be conducted by wire, video, telephone, or other electronic transmission.

Section 13: Proxies

There shall be no proxies for Board of Directors' votes.

Section 14: Quorum and Manner of Acting

Fifty-one percent (51%) or more of the seated Board members (does not include vacant positions) constitute a quorum. The act of a majority of the Directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the entire Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may appoint a committee of two (2) or more Directors or members or any combination thereof to perform any act or acts in the stead of the Board of Directors. Such designation of a committee shall not relieve the Board of Directors or any individual Director of any responsibility imposed upon it by these by-laws or applicable law.

Section 15: Point System and Award Classification

The officers and Directors shall determine the point system and award classification for the following years' horse shows by notice to the Corporation in the fall of each year.

Section 16: Dues

The Board of Directors shall determine the due date and the amount of membership dues for each year.

- c. Treasurer – The Treasurer shall be charged with the responsibility of management of the Association's financial affairs. The responsibilities shall include but are not limited to investment of funds, payment in collection of bills, and the Treasurer shall be required to report to the Board of Directors at each regular meeting and upon such reasonable request as made. The Board of Directors shall require that the Treasurer be bonded. Any such requirement shall be paid for by the Board of Directors.

- d. Secretary – The Secretary shall keep the minutes of the meetings of the members and the minutes of the meeting of the Board of Directors. The Secretary shall supervise the mailing of all necessary notices upon proper request from members or officers. The Secretary shall be the custodian of the vote of the corporate records of the Corporation. The Secretary shall have the authority to make such disbursements from petty cash and general funds of the Corporation for the operation of the administrative office.
- e. Regional Vice-presidents – The three (3) regional Vice-presidents shall supervise any local and district meetings held for the purpose of furthering the interest of the Corporation, obtaining additional members, obtaining more and better recognized shows and other acts to service the regional members.
- f. Limited Purpose Officers – The Board of Directors may designate persons to act as assistant Treasurer or Secretary if deemed appropriate. These specifically designated officers shall perform only such duties as designated by the Board of Directors in a written resolution.
- g. Vacancies – The vacancy in any office because of death, resignation, removal, or any other reason must be filled by the President of the Corporation within 30 days, and ratified by the Board of Directors at the next regularly scheduled meeting for the unexpired portion of the term.
- h. Removal – Any officer may be removed by the Board of Directors when, in the sole discretion of the Board of Directors, the officer is not fulfilling his duties responsibly.

ARTICLE VIII ELECTIONS

Section 1: Frequency

An election shall be held each year for each office and position on the Board of Directors.

- a. Voter Eligibility – Each voting member in good standing may vote in the election for officers to serve in the year subsequent to the membership.
- b. Number of Votes – Each eligible member shall be entitled to one (1) vote only for the candidate of his or her choice.

Section 2: Nomination Meeting

The Board of Directors shall make nominations to the ballot no later than October of each year.

Section 3: Automatic Nominations

The Secretary, or if the offices of Secretary and Treasurer are combined, the Secretary/Treasurer shall be automatically re-nominated for that post each subsequent year. The Vice-president shall automatically be nominated to the office of President unless the incumbent President is re-nominated.

Section 4: Discretionary Nominations

In addition to the preceding nomination provisions, the Board shall nominate a minimum of one person for each office, and at least two, but not more than five persons from each District for the office of Director or Regional Vice-president.

Section 5: Ballots

- a. Ties - The President of the Corporation serving in the year that the election was held will have the power to break all ties, in his or her sole discretion, in any elected position except for the office of President. In this situation the tie breaking vote will be conducted by secret ballot of the Board of Directors minus the President.
- b. Transfer of Office - The officers shall be given the authority of their positions at the annual meeting as designated by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE IX STANDING COMMITTEES

Section 1: Purpose

The day-to-day operation and substantive work of the ILQHA is primarily accomplished by its Standing Committee structure.
